

The Big Ten Conference
Wayne Duke Postgraduate Award
Presented by
The Indianapolis Big Ten Community Partnership

The Wayne Duke Postgraduate Award is named for the former Big Ten Conference commissioner who served from 1971-89. While leading the Big Ten, Duke spent much of his time working to improve academic standards and graduation rates for students competing in intercollegiate athletics. Prior to arriving at the Big Ten Conference, Duke became the youngest executive officer of a major athletic conference when he took over the former Big Eight Conference at the age of 34 in 1963. Duke broke down barriers by hiring the first African American assistant commissioner of any national athletic organization in 1974 as well as the first female assistant commissioner in 1982. Duke graduated from the University of Iowa in 1950. He retired after 18 years of service to the Big Ten on June 30, 1989.

The Wayne Duke Postgraduate Award (the “Award”) is an annual scholarship recognizing one male and one female Big Ten senior for exceptional achievement in academics, athletics, and civic service. The Wayne Duke Postgraduate Award is merit-based and features a one-time, non-renewable financial award. For 2023, each Award is $10,000. Awards will be funded directly to the recipient’s postgraduate institution upon verification of enrollment within eighteen months of graduation.

Each Big Ten institution may nominate one male and one female student who has consistently demonstrated high levels of achievement in academics, athletics, and civic service throughout their collegiate career. From these nominations, an independent committee will select one male and one female nominee to receive the award.

Nominations from university administrators are due upon completion of the Fall 2022 term, but no later than January 20, 2023. Nomination forms may be accessed online at www.indianasportscorp.org/events/wayne-duke-postgraduate-award. Complete nomination packets must be uploaded via the electronic application link.

The Selection Committee is comprised of seven members who are independent of the Big Ten Conference and each institution. The Selection Committee will review all nomination packets to select the two Award recipients.

The Indianapolis Big Ten Community Partnership is planning to present the Awards during the 2023 Big Ten Football Championship Game in Indianapolis.

Eligibility Requirements

To be eligible for consideration, a nominee must:

1. Honorably represent a Big Ten Conference institution, exhibiting excellence in academics, athletics, and civic service while displaying strong character and leadership skills.
2. Be an undergraduate who is competing in:
 - a. His/her last season of athletic eligibility, and,
 - b. A varsity sport sponsored by his/her Big Ten Conference institution.
3. Plan to enroll in graduate or professional school within eighteen (18) months of graduation.

Nomination Process and Materials

Each institution should select one male and one female student pursuant to the criteria contained herein. The selection process at each institution is at the discretion of each institution. A complete nomination packet should be uploaded via the online application link to the Selection Committee upon completion of the Fall 2022 semester, but no later than January 20, 2023. A nomination packet must include:

1. A nomination form signed by the institution's Athletic Director and Faculty Athletic Representative
2. A letter of recommendation from the nominee's Head Coach (providing detailed examples of demonstrated athletic achievement, character, leadership, teamwork, work ethic, etc.)
3. A letter of recommendation from an academic faculty member familiar with the nominee's academic performance (providing detailed examples of academic achievement and effort, extracurricular activities, leadership, accomplishments, etc.)
4. A student application form prepared through the online portal and verified by the nominee
5. An official copy of the nominee's transcript
6. A copy of the nominee's resume
7. A headshot, and if possible, a sport-specific action shot of the student for publicity purposes
