RAINBOW NOTES

START OF A NEW ERA

After two seasons as UH's top assistant, James Robinson makes his debut as Rainbow Wahine head coach this season. Robinson was selected to succeed Maureen Cole, who retired at the conclusion of UH's historic 2024 season, and is the fourth head coach to lead the 'Bows since the program was established in 1998. Joining Robinson on his inaugural coaching staff are associate head coach Candice Vorbeck and assistant coach Rebekka Williams.

- Robinson was named the 2024 Association of Collegiate Water Polo Coaches Women's Assistant/Associate Coach of the Year
- In his second season as UH associate head coach, he helped Maureen Cole lead the Rainbow Wahine to a 23-4 season and the highest ranking in program history
- The season was highlighted by two wins over teams ranked No. 1 in the country (Stanford and USC) and a perfect run through the Big West regular-season schedule and conference tournament
- The Rainbow Wahine made the program's first appearance in the Women's National Collegiate Water Polo Championship since 2021 and advanced to the semifinals for the first time since 2013
- UH is 65-14 overall and 20-1 in Big West play during Robinson's tenure with the Rainbow Wahine coaching staff
- Robinson is a graduate of UCLA and was a member of three national championship teams with the Bruins (2014, '15 and '17)
- He played professionally with the Hunter Hurricanes in Australia and began his coaching career in 2018, working at both the club and high school levels in New Zealand.

OLYMPIC EXPERIENCE

Junior utility Camille Radosavljevic and freshman attacker Ema Vernoux in their first season as UH teammates, but it isn't their first time playing together. After spending the past several years as teammates with France's national team, Radosavljevic and Vernoux helped make history in late July, representing the country in its long-awaited Olympic debut. Vernoux would go on to make even more history for France, scoring the nation's first ever goal in an Olympic women's water polo match.

- Radosavljevic played for UH in the 2022 and '23 seasons, remained in France for the 2024 season to prepare for the Olympics. Vernoux comes to UH from a prominent water polo family in France and helped the national team secure its best-ever finishes at the World Aquatics Championships.
- Senior Jordan Wedderburn competed in the 2020 Games in Tokyo with South Africa and served as team captain at just 18 years old.

INTERNATIONAL FLAVOR

The Rainbow Wahine again feature an international lineup with seven countries represented on the 21-player roster.

- UH's roster features 13 international players along with eight from the United States.
- Countries represented on this season's roster are Australia (one player), Canada (three),
   France (two), the Netherlands (three), New Zealand (three), South Africa (one), and the United States (eight).

'BOWS SECOND IN BIG WEST POLL

The defending Big West champion Rainbow Wahine placed second in the Big West Women's Water Polo Preseason Coaches' Poll, finishing just behind UC Irvine in the voting of the conference's eight coaches.

- UH went 23-4 overall last season and finished 7-0 in Big West play to capture the regular-season championship.
- The 'Bows then swept through the Big West Championship to earn the conference's automatic bid to the National Collegiate Women's Water Polo Championship. UH ended the season in the national semifinals and finished at No. 3 in the ACWPC and Collegiate Water Polo Association polls, the highest final ranking in program history.
- Senior attacker Bernadette Doyle and sophomore goalkeeper Daisy Logtens were among the seven players voted to the preseason all-conference team.
