

Imagine being only a freshman in college and having a double-digit scoring game in your first ever basketball game. Well for 20 year old sophomore in college, Alyza Winston it's not hard to.

When Alyza was only a freshman in college tallied in 14 points vs. Eastern Michigan, tallied 4 points with two rebounds and one steal in 15 minutes of play, and even set a career-high 5 rebounds. Keep in mind this was only in her Freshman year.

And it wasn't only in college, Winston also dominated at her previous highschool, Muskegon High School where she led them to the Class A state semifinals and averaged 24.7 points, 3.3 steals and 3.2 assists per game in only her senior season.

She also garnered both All Conference and All-District honors throughout her highschool career. Alyza even played AAU basketball for the Michigan crossover EYBL and head coach Monique Brown. The best part is she is still dominating today as a Point Guard and only a sophomore.
