LAST TIME OUT

MUNCIE, Ind. – Jaylin Sellers produced his third game of the season with 20 points or more, as he posted a game-high 20 points for Ball State on Saturday. The Cardinals defeated the Evansville Aces 88-69, as four BSU players finished in double figures. Ball State moved to 6-4 overall, while Evansville fell to 3-9.

“This was a good win for us,” said Head Coach Michael Lewis. “To be back at home for the first time in three weeks after five-consecutive road games, to come back against an in-state opponent, always means something. I’m really pleased with the way we settled into the game with our defense in the first half, we held them to 28 points. I thought it was really good in the second half. It got a little bit away from us in some areas, but it’s human nature when you’re up 28, you get a little lax. If we’re going to become the program we want and we’re working towards being, we’ve got to continue to play to the standard of Ball State basketball and not the scoreboard. I’ve been doing this for a long time as an assistant, and you don’t ever not celebrate wins. We’re really happy with this. We’ve continued to improve each time we’ve gone out. Today was a really good home win. The crowd was excellent. I think their energy was good. The students were fantastic and hopefully we can bring them back and continue what we’re doing here after finals.”

Sellers led the way with 20 points and added four rebounds and an assist. Payton Sparks finished with his fourth double-double in five games. Sparks went for 18 points and brought down a game-high 12 rebounds. He also added an assist and a block. Jarron Coleman tallied 15 points for his ninth-straight contest in double digits. He added four rebounds, three steals, and two assists. Basheer Jihad collected 12 points, his first double-digit effort of the season, to go along with a career-high seven rebounds, two assists, and one steal. Coleman and Mickey Pearson Jr. tied for a game-high two blocks. Coleman along with Demarius Jacobs tied for a game-high three steals.

Evansville opened the game by scoring the game’s first three points. The Cardinals answered with the next eight points, including a 3-pointer by Sparks. The Aces went on a 13-9 run and cut their deficit to 17-16 with 11:25 left in the first half. The Cardinal started to pick up the intensity on the defensive end of the court and the game started to tilt in favor of Ball State. BSU produced an 11-0 run that spanned 5:47 of game time and extended its lead to 28-16. Things did not get any easier for Evansville the remainder of the half as Ball State took a 42-28 lead into the half.

The Cardinals started the second half on a 14-6 run, capped off by an outstanding hustle play by Coleman to save a missed BSU shot from going out of bounds. He jumped in the air over the baseline and threw the ball back to Sellers. Once Coleman reestablished himself inbounds, Sellers kicked it to Coleman for the corner 3-pointer. BSU held a 56-34 lead with 14:30 left in regulation.

Evansville went on an 11-2 run that ended with 12:17 left to play and cut the Ball State lead to 58-45. The Cardinals ramped up the energy and went on a 25-10 run to take their biggest lead of the game, 83-55, with 4:43 left on the clock.

The Aces ended the game on a 14-5 run, but the early Cardinal lead gave BSU the 88-69 victory.

As a team, Ball State shot 31-of-40, 77.5 percent, from the free-throw line. For the season, the Cardinals have made more free throws (180) than BSU opponents have attempted (164). Ball State came into today’s contest 19th in the NCAA with an average of 24.0 free throws per game.

The Cardinals’ physicality led to 28 points in the paint and 18 second-chance points. Ball State committed fewer turnovers than Evansville, which led to a 21-7 advantage in points off turnovers for BSU.

Marvin Coleman led Evansville with 17 points along with three rebounds, three assists, and two rebounds. Kenny Strawbridge finished with 15 points, eight rebounds, three assists, and a steal. Antoine Smith Jr. chipped in with a 14-point game and added seven rebounds. Preston Phillips led the Aces with nine rebounds.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT COACH LEWIS

"Everyone at UCLA and I couldn't be happier for Michael and his family. He has been a huge part of our success over the last three years in Westwood. Ball State is getting a rising star in college coaching in Coach Lewis. Michael has the entire package of coaching acumen, player relation skills and recruiting chops to build the Cards into a force in the Mid-American Conference. I cannot wait to root for the Cardinals and watch Coach Lewis bring the excitement back to campus in Muncie. We will definitely miss Michael, but we are all very excited for him." - Mick Cronin, UCLA head coach

"Michael Lewis is an outstanding hire for Ball State! Mike is an outstanding coach, an excellent recruiter and one of the best at evaluating talent I have been around. More than anything though, Mike has a great understanding of what wins and the kind of program culture he wants. Trust me, he will be relentless in his pursuit of that. Muncie will absolutely love Mike and his beautiful family." - Chris Holtmann, Ohio State head coach

"I love Michael Lewis as the head coach at Ball State. Nichole, Avery, Emma, and Michael are a great fit at the university, the state of Indiana and the Muncie community. Michael is an excellent coach, recruiter, and mentor for young people. Ball State is on the rise under Michael's leadership and I wish him nothing but the best!" - Tim Miles, San Jose State head coach

"It was just a matter of time, because I've known since his IU days he was destined to be a college head coach. He was a terrific scorer in high school, became an excellent point guard at IU and evolved into an elite assistant coach over the past 20 years. In today's lingo, he's a 'dog.' Nobody will work harder, and his pedigree promises success. Congratulations Mike to you and your family!" - Don Fischer, Voice of the Hoosiers

 Indiana, 1996-2000

Michael Lewis was introduced as head coach of the Ball State men's basketball team on March 25, 2022. Lewis became the 20th head coach in men's basketball history.

In three seasons at UCLA, Lewis helped guide the Bruins to a 68-29 overall record and two NCAA Tournament appearances, which included a historic run to the 2021 Final Four in which the team won five consecutive games in a 13-day span. Lewis and UCLA took on North Carolina in a Sweet 16 matchup in 2021-22.

While with the Bruins, Lewis played a key role in the development of guards Tyger Campbell, Jaime Jaquez Jr. and Johnny Juzang, all of which were named All-Pac-12 honorees in the 2020-21 and 2021-22 seasons.

Lewis helped bring in a plethora of talent during his stint in Los Angeles, culminating in a top-10 recruiting class during his final campaign.

Prior to UCLA, Lewis was an assistant coach for three seasons at Nebraska. He served as the program's offensive play-caller in 2017-18 and 2018-19, guiding Nebraska to 41 wins in those two seasons. That marked Nebraska's best two-year win total since compiling 45 wins in 1990-91 and 1991-92. In three seasons in Lincoln, Nebraska, Lewis helped the Huskers to a 53-47 mark, the program's best three-year win total in nearly 10 years.

In 2017-18, Nebraska recorded its highest scoring average in 22 seasons, as the Huskers finished fourth in the Big Ten Conference with a school-record 13 league victories before reaching the National Invitational Tournament (NIT). Lewis helped to develop James Palmer Jr., who secured first-team All-Big Ten acclaim and averaged 17.2 points per game in his first season with Nebraska. In 2017, Tai Webster captured second-team all-league honors, having set career highs in both scoring and assists. Glynn Watson was among the Big Ten's leaders in scoring and steals.

Lewis was instrumental in Butler's success during a five-year stint with the Bulldogs from 2011-16. Through those five seasons, Butler went 108-63 and had four postseason appearances, including three NCAA Tournament berths. The Bulldogs won at least 20 games in four of Lewis' five seasons on the coaching staff, including a 27-win campaign in 2012-13. While at Butler, Lewis worked on coaching staffs for head coaches Brad Stevens (2012-13), Brandon Miller (2013-14) and Chris Holtmann (2014-16).

In each of three trips to the NCAA Tournament while at Butler, the Bulldogs won at least one game, including victories over Texas in 2015 and Texas Tech in 2016. He was also part of a Butler squad that orchestrated the fourth-best win improvement in Big East history (2014-15).

Lewis coached four players at Butler who combined for six all-conference awards, including a trio of first-team selections. Three of his players garnered CoSIDA Academic All-America accolades, while Kellen Dunham and Alex Barlow combined to earn three consecutive Big East Scholar-Athlete of the Year awards during Lewis' tenure at Butler.
